TACOMA, WASH. – One of America’s favorite new vocal groups, Under the Streetlamp, fuses classic hits from the American radio songbook into a medley of tight harmonies unique to the quartet’s style. From Doo-Wop to Motown, and old-time Rock ‘n’ Roll, Under the Streetlamp delivers an electrifying performance of timeless hits. See them at the Pantages Theater on April 15 at 7:30 p.m. – tickets are now on sale starting at \$29.

The production’s original performers met onstage as the lead characters in Jersey Boys, and have since formed a concert sensation of their own. After achieving initial success performing in and around Chicago, Under the Streetlamp aired its first PBS special in 2011 and the second in 2014. The four gifted singers then set off on the national tour that continues today, thrilling sold-out houses throughout the country.

Classic hits first performed by Frankie Valli, Elvis Presley, Tom Jones, The Beatles, Roy Orbison, Bobby Darin, and more, are reborn for today’s audiences in an evening of great music and hilarious behind-the-scenes tales, complete with an exceptional band composed of world-class musicians. With irresistible charm and rapport, Under the Streetlamp offers audiences the opportunity to get to know four critically-acclaimed stars of stage and screen: Michael Ingersoll, Christopher Kale Jones, Brandon Wardell, and Shonn Wiley. While each performer gets his moment in the spotlight, their synergy and charisma as a group has drawn an extremely devoted nationwide following, taking audiences back to the days of sharkskin suits, flashy cars, and martini shakers.

Each performer carries with him an impressive list of credits. Between them, they have appeared on Broadway, in feature films, and on television – including special appearances during the New Year’s Eve celebration in Times Square, on The Tonight Show, The Primetime Emmy Awards, The Tony Awards, and The Oprah Winfrey Show.
